

The City of Taylorville will be hosting a Joint Utility meeting on the first Wednesday of each month in the City Council Chambers at 9:00 a.m.

All Utility Representatives are invited to attend.

Items to be covered are any projects by any utility which may require coordination with another utility or any concerns about ongoing projects.

The goal of these meetings is to enhance the communication and cooperation between utilities and allow advanced budgeting for upcoming possible relocations.